

ANSWER KEY

Unit 1 – Lesson 3: Listening & Speaking

Exercise 1: Match the sentences with the correct pictures.

1. Her birthday is on the fifteenth of May.
2. They're cycling.
3. It's eleven o'clock.
4. There is a bookshop at the corner.
5. They're watching a film at the movie theater.

Exercise 2: Listen and choose True or False

1. True

Clue(s):

Man: Have a good time, Tim. Don't forget we're meeting tomorrow morning outside the railway station at eleven.

Tim: Dad, that's much too early. I'm going out with Simon tonight. We're spending the evening at a nightclub. We're staying there till midnight. I can't meet you until the afternoon. Two o'clock is better.

Man: OK. But don't be late. And have a good evening.

2. False

Clue(s):

Man: OK. But don't be late. And have a good evening.

4. False

Explanation: Tim didn't mention anything about the supermarket.

5. False

Explanation: Tim decides to do that, not his father.

Exercise 3: Listen and circle the correct letter A, B or C.

1. C

Clue(s):

Greg: This weekend is so boring. Let's go out and do something tomorrow. I'd like to do some sport. Would you like to play tennis with me?

Sophia: I'm not very good at tennis. My best sport is hockey. I'd like to have a game tomorrow.

Greg: Don't be silly. We can't play hockey with just two people. We could go out on our bikes. So that I can take a picnic.

Sophia: Great idea.

2. B

Clue(s):

Woman: I want some shampoo to take on holiday. The chemist is at the other end of the shopping center. So let's go and look for your swimming costume first.

Girl: Oh, yes. There's a really nice one in the sports shop over there.

Woman: Ok. And remind me to buy something to read on the plane. The bookshop is next to the chemist's.

3. C

Clue(s):

Man: Have a good time, Tim. Don't forget we're meeting tomorrow morning outside the railway station at eleven.

Tim: Dad, that's much too early. I'm going out with Simon tonight. We're spending the evening at a nightclub. We're staying there till midnight. I can't meet you until the afternoon. Two o'clock is better.

Man: OK. But don't be late. And have a good evening.

4. A

Clue(s):

Boy: I've got an invitation to a concert on Saturday evening. Euan is playing the violin and he says I can have two free tickets. Do you want to come?

Girl: Well, I've got two tickets for the rock band at the Town Hall on Saturday evening. It starts at 8 o'clock, but I can go with someone else.

Boy: Oh, I'm coming with you to that. Please?

Girl: OK. And don't forget we are taking your little brother to the cinema on Saturday afternoon.

5. A

Clue(s):

Woman: You know Paula's sixteen soon?

Man: Surely not! Time passes so quickly. Now, let me see, when is her birthday? It's the fifteenth of May, isn't it?

Woman: That's right. It's on a Monday. So the party's two days before, on the thirteenth. That's a Saturday.

Exercise 4: Read and choose the correct sentences. Which questions does the examiner often ask in Phrase 1?

- A. What's your name?
- B. Where do you live?
- C. Do you like where you live? Why/Why not?
- F. What subject do you study?

Explanation: Because in Speaking Part 1, the examiner asks you general questions about yourself instead of about others such as your mother or opinions about issues.

Exercise 5: Match the question in column A with the suitable answer in column B.

1. b. Do you like English? Why/Why not? – No, I don't. I find it difficult to catch up with what English speakers say.
2. e. Tell us about your English teacher. – She's really kind. She teaches my classmates and me lots of wonderful lessons.
3. d. What's your favorite school subject? Why? – I really like math because I enjoy working with numbers and it's useful in my daily life.
4. a. What do you enjoy doing in your free time? – Well, skateboarding and shopping are my favorite activities.
5. c. Tell us about your family. – There are four people in my family: my parents, my brother and me. My brother is stubborn and we often fight.
